Gridiron Grub: Where To Order Your Last Minute Super Bowl Party Spread - February 1, 2013

NEW YORK (CBSNewYork) – Time to put the finishing touches on your Super Bowl party plans. All week we've brought you tips on game day bites, party decor, healthy snack options and gridiron-themed cocktails. But if the menu for your game day shindig still needs some fixins, we've rounded up the best city restaurants to place your last minute food orders.

A.G. Kitchen Chef Alex Garcia has appeared on 2 In The Kitchen preparing his famed Cubano Sandwiches. Order a giant, pressed sandwich (made with roast pork, black fores ham, swiss cheese, pickles and spicy mustard) for $69 this game day. (212-873-9400).

In Midtown, the Le Marais takeout menu includes appetizers like Wagyu Beef Sliders and French Dip Steak Sandwiches, entrees like Ribeye Steaks and Prime Rib, and Braised Lamb with Rosemary. View the entire menu and find ordering info here.
